WHITE POPPIES FOR CULTURE & PEACE

White poppies are now plastic-free and recyclable. They are produced in the UK by a workers' cooperative. The message is still the same: a commitment to support all who work for peace and a remembrance of all victims of war, not just the ones 'like us'.

Pick up your white poppy at the entrance to the chapel; they can also be found at Burway Books and Entertaining Elephants. Ruth Davies

CHURCH COUNCIL MEETING

The next Church Council Meeting will be held on Monday 17th November at 2pm in the Church hall.

CHRISTMAS TREE FESTIVAL

The Churches Together contribution to the Christmas Tree Festival this year will be a tree based on the theme of Angels - the heavenly host.

We are in need of angels to fill our tree please.

Size of angels to be no smaller than 6cm and preferably no larger than 10cm

They can be knitted, crocheted, sewn, felted, paper crafted....the possibilities are endless- choose something you enjoy doing.

Colours: preferably whites, silvers, golds, yellows.

The Christmas tree is to be in place by Monday 1st Dec so all angels will need to be completed at the very latest by the last week of November.

Any queries please speak to Sue. Thank you.

REFLECTION on Remembrance.

The tragedy of war is so evident when one visits the cemetery allocated for soldiers killed during the First and Second World Wars. Young men and women heroically joined the forces only to be mowed down by gunfire or other weapons of war. All we have to remember them is their name printed in the Garden of Remembrance.

All that took place some time ago, but nations still prepare for war with the possible use of weapons more effective than before. Dictators display the mass assembly of tanks supported by rank after rank of soldiery. They seemed to say "Do as we say or we will answer to you as only, we know how".

Remembrance Sunday is as necessary as it ever was, especially with the atomic bomb looming up, should any one dare to use it.

We turn for guidance to Jesus who said "Peace I give to you; my peace I give to you. Let not hearts be troubled." Is it then that we will be blessed by a peace that no one will disturb?
